

Town Band Concert Notes

Kathleen Richards Ehlinger

Kathleen Richards Ehlinger joined the Guilderland School District faculty in 1986 at the Farnsworth Middle School. Since 1998, Kathleen has conducted both the Symphonic Band and the Wind Ensemble. She also taught at the Honeoye Falls/Lima (NY) School District. She is a 1981 graduate of Guilderland High School, received her Bachelor's Degree in Music Education from the Crane School of Music, Potsdam, New York, and her Master's Degree from George Mason University in Fairfax, Virginia. There, she studied Trumpet with Colonel Gilbert Mitchell from the United States Army Band and worked with renowned conductors Colonel Arnold Gabriel, and Professor Anthony Maiello. She has guest-conducted many All-County Festivals in New York State including Albany, Saratoga, Rensselaer, Monroe, Schoharie, and Herkimer Counties. She was the conductor of the Guilderland Town Band from 2001 through 2003. Kathleen is a NYSSMA adjudicator, a brass clinician and performs on her trumpet throughout the region with the Tri-City Brass Quintet. She continues to serve as a board member for the Guilderland Performing Arts Center and is a life-long resident of Guilderland where she makes her home with her husband David and sons Andrew and Ryan.

Guest Artist Biographies

Brian Bailey

Mr. Bailey has been a music educator in Albany County for the past fourteen years. He received his Bachelor and Master of Music degree with distinction from the Crane School of Music at the State University of New York at Potsdam. He has taught elementary, middle and high school vocal music and has led numerous instrumental ensembles in the Guilderland School District. He is a trumpet player in the Capital Region Wind Ensemble and frequently performs as a guest vocal soloist and guest conductor. Currently, Mr. Bailey is an Assistant Principal at Guilderland High School and is very excited to again be performing with the Guilderland Town Band.

Rae Jean Teeter

Rae Jean Teeter has been the Director of Vocal Music at Guilderland High School for the past 12 years. While at Guilderland she has developed a choral curriculum that has been recognized throughout the state for its excellence in performance and in the use of Music Learning Theory and movement to develop the aural skills of her singers. Mrs. Teeter received her bachelor's degree from the Eastman School of Music and her master's degree from The College of Saint Rose. She has done extensive post graduate work at the Westminster Choir College where she has studied with Dr. James Jordan, Dr. Bruce Chamberlain, and Dr. Weston Nobel. Mrs. Teeter currently serves as the NYACDA High School Repertoire and Standards chairperson and is a contributing author for the upcoming "Teaching Music Through Performance in Choir Vol. 2" published by GIA music. She is a frequent guest conductor and clinician throughout the state speaking on the development of the male voice and the importance of cultivating excellent aural skills in choral singers.

Gary Barrow

Gary Barrow, Concert and Jazz Band Director for Galway Central Schools, holds a B.M. from the Crane School of Music (SUNY Potsdam) and a M.S. in Music Ed from the Univ. of Illinois. Under his direction, the Galway Bands have received "Superior" ratings at Classic Festival Competitions in 2004 and 2006. Mr. Barrow has served as guest conductor for Montgomery, Rensselaer, and Colonial Council All-County Band Festivals. He is the current president of the Saratoga-Warren County Music Educator's Association. Mr. Barrow has performed professionally with several outstanding groups in the Capital Region including the Empire Jazz Orchestra, New York Players, Joey Thomas Big Band, and the Capital Region Wind Ensemble. He has had the opportunity to perform with artists such as Slide Hampton, Wycliffe Gordon, Lew Soloff, Dennis DiBlasio, and Nick Brignola, Randy Brecker, and Rufus Reid.

GOD OF OUR FATHERS

By Daniel C. Roberts

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

CHESTER

By William Billings

Let tyrants shake their iron rod,
And Slav'ry clank her galling chains,
We fear them not, We trust in God,
New England's God forever reigns.

The Foe comes on with haughty stride,
Our troops advance with martial noise,
Their Vet'rans flee, before your Youth,
And Gen'rals yeild to beardless Boys.

What grateful Off'ring shall we bring?
What shall we render to this Lord?
Loud Hallelujah let us sing,
And praise His Name on Ev'ry Chord.

Let There Be Peace On Earth

By Sy Miller and Jill Jackson

Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me
Let there be peace on earth,
The peace that was meant to be,
With God as our Father,
Brothers all are we.
Let me walk with my brother
In perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me,
Let this be the moment now.
With everystep I take,
Let this be my solumn vow:
To take each moment and live each moment
In peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me.

America the Beautiful

By Samuel Augustus Ward

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet
Whose stern impassioned stress
A thoroughfare of freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America!
God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law!
